

Inside Taylor's Fearless Tour!

HITTIN' THE ROAD & MOVIN' ON

As Taylor gets ready to kick off the second leg of her tour on March 4, she's so excited to be back on stage. "When I hear that high-pitched sound of all those people screaming together, it's like, I want to get on stage now," she spills. One thing that's not on Tay's mind? Boys. After her split with Taylor L., she's enjoying her time as a single gal, hanging with her bandmates, writing songs on her bus, and dancing on stage every night. Having a BF while on tour can be really difficult and stressful — now that Taylor doesn't have to worry about long distance love, she can let loose!

✿ Taylor loves practical jokes on tour! "Pranking is a must," she tweeted.

✿ Taylor wants her makeup to be perfect before she hits the stage. Her must-have item? Eyeliner!

✿ Taylor takes her camera everywhere — she even posts many of her tour pics on myspace.com/taylorswift!
